FLETCHER OUT FOR NEW TERM

Congressman Announces He Will Seek Democratic Nomination in May

FILES DECLARATION TODAY

All Party Committees in District Reported To Have Pledged Support

Congressman Brooks Fletcher of Marion today announced he will seek renomination on the Democratic ticket.

He is the third candidate to come out for the office in a period of three days.

The others are Grant F. Mouser Jr. former congressman and J. Wesley Masters of near Edison, Morrow county both seeking the Republican nomination. Several weeks ago George J. Kihrer of Bucyrus announced for the Democratic nomination.

Congressman Fletcher's announcement rounds out a field of four candidates for the congressional office assuring contests on both tickets for party nomination at the May 12 primaries.

Mr. Fletcher now is serving his fourth term as congressional representative of Marion, Hardin, Wyandot, Crawford, Morrow and Hancock counties. He first served in 1925 and 1926 was reelected for another term and in 1928 lost to Grant F. Mouser Jr. Marion Republican who announced two days ago he will seek the nomination again this year. Mr. Fletcher staged a comeback in 1932 defeating Mr. Mouser. In 1934 he was reelected, defeating Miss Gertrude Jones of Findlay.

Simultaneously with his announcement of candidacy Mr. Fletcher filed his formal declaration of candidacy with the county board of elections today. The declaration arrived by mail from Washington, D. C. where Mr. Fletcher is attending the current session of congress. He is the first to file with the board of elections for the congressional campaign.

In a formal statement announcing his candidacy he did not outline his campaign platform.

Edward Carl Wrede the congressman's secretary said Mr. Fletcher left the decision as to whether he should be a candidate to the county Democratic committees and party leaders. Mr. Wrede said county committees have adopted resolutions supporting him.

He said Mr. Fletcher is the only member of the Ohio delegation of 22 congressmen who holds a committee chairmanship in the house of representatives although some have had much longer service. The committee he heads is on the election of president, vice president and representatives in congress.

Mr. Fletcher formerly was editor and publisher of the Marion Tribune and is widely known as a public speaker. The Marion home of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher is at 234 Thew avenue.

CITY COVERED BY HALF-FOOT FALL OF SNOW

Heaviest Coating in Several Years, Bucyrus Also Has Like Amount.

MORE PREDICTED TONIGHT

Streets Soon Pack into Glare of Ice Making Driving Hazardous

A six inch snowfall was recorded in Marion last night and this morning as King Weather substituted snow for zero temperatures as the chief weather worry of the city and most of the state.

The snowfall here was the heaviest for Marion in several years and Marion along with Bucyrus had the heaviest blanket of snow in the state.

More snow and a sharp drop in temperatures are forecast for tonight and Friday.

Weather troubles wracked most of the nation and parts of Europe today. Ohio's chief concern was the heavy snow ranging from two to six inches in depth. In California floods and tornadoes caused damage. In Iowa the coal shortage became acute. Montana cattle herds were threatened by the weather. Blizzards lashed Europe.

Marion Gets Heaviest Snowfall in Years

The heaviest snowfall in Marion in several years covered the city with a six inch coat of white last night and this morning making travel difficult for both pedestrians and motorists.

As state county and township snow plows were rushed into operation to clear the way for motor traffic the snowfall gave way to a light fall of rain.

Most of the state was covered by heavy snowfall but in Marion and Bucyrus where the depth was reported at six inches by government observers the fall was the heaviest in the state.

Snow Colder Predicted

Although moderate weather and rising temperatures coupled with the rain were partially clearing away the snow at noon government weather forecasters predicted more snow and a substantial drop in temperature for tonight and Friday.

Temperatures reached the moderate winter level of 28 yesterday afternoon for the day's high mark and dropped only three degrees last night to a low of 25. The mercury was upward bound this morning and shortly before noon stood at the freezing mark 32. A year ago Marion residents were wondering if spring was near when the mercury hit a high of 45 and the low mark was 27.

County and state road officials who sent out snow plows on the main roads early this morning said no roads in the county were closed and that slippery pavements presented a greater hazard than deep snow. The absence of wind kept the snow from drifting, they explained. Rural mail carriers reported driving on portions

LIQUOR INSPECTOR SUED FOR DAMAGES

West Center Street Man Declares Broadley Struck Him in Raid on Home.

A $5,000 damage suit has been filed in common pleas court against State Liquor Inspector K. T. Broadley and the New York Casualty Co. by Roy Harris of 894 West Center street.

The suit grew out of a liquor raid staged at the Harris residence Feb. 8 by the inspector and local police. The casualty company was named in the suit because it is the signer of Inspector Broadley's $1,000 surety bond.

Harris charges in his petition, which was filed by his attorneys the law firm of Carhart, Warner & Carhart that at 9:30 Feb. 8 Broadley forced his way into the Harris home without a search warrant, and that during the course of the raid the inspector struck Harris on the left jaw causing him "serious bodily pain and injury."

Inspector Broadley said today that he staged the Harris raid in company with Police Chief William E. Marks and Patrolman L. E. Kirts, and that he had a search warrant signed by Municipal Judge W. R. Martin. He explained he would not open the

SENATE SPEEDS TWO BIG BILLS

Hopes To Pass Production Control Farm Measure by Tomorrow Night

HOUSE ARGUES DEFENSE

Norris Assails Supreme Court's AAA Ruling and Asks Action To Curb Tribunal

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 — Fast one two action on farm relief and neutrality was the schedule outlined today for the senate while the house struggled toward a vote on the big army bill.

By tomorrow night, senate leaders hoped the bill providing federal subsidies for farmers who conserve soil and thereby control production would be on its way to the house.

Defending this bill yesterday, Sen. Norris Republican of Nebraska assailed the supreme court decision invalidating AAA. He virtually beckoned new dealers to follow him in a concerted legislative attack designed to curb the court.

After disposing of the farm bill Sen. Robinson of Arkansas Democratic leader hopes the chamber will pass a neutrality compromise early next week.

This compromise agreed upon by the senate foreign relations committee would continue the present mandatory embargo on war implements intended for belligerents and curb loans and credits. But it would not provide some other features originally sought by the administration such as authority to slap normal peacetime quotas on exports of other goods to warring nations.

While Washington read of Lincoln day speechmaking over the country and made further plans for national conventions these further developments drew attention.

The house struggled over amendments to the bill providing a peacetime record of $ 43,000,000 for the army. The military affairs committee voted down an amendment yesterday to provide 800 new planes in the 1937 fiscal year, instead of the 565 in the bill.

The federal housing administration in its annual report to congress said home mortgage money is now available "on the most attractive terms in history."

ROAD BOND LAW BEFORE COURT

Ohio Supreme Judges To Decide Constitutionality of Refunder Measure

FIFTY COUNTIES OBJECT

Marion One of Districts in Which Cost Would Be Greater Than Benefit

The Armbruster-Lawrence road bond refunder law which County Auditor Harry V. Mounts has estimated will cost Marion county $54,774 in automobile license revenue for the next 15 years if it becomes effective was before the Ohio supreme court today in a test of its constitutionality.

The Associated Press in a news dispatch from Columbus reported that the law a source of controversy since its passage by the legislature last spring already has been branded unconstitutional.

The law proposes to use a percentage of the annual automobile license revenue received by the county to pay off outstanding assessments against owners of rural real estate for county and township road improvements.

Mounts Makes Estimate

Auditor Mounts has estimated that $180,354 of the automobile license money this county would receive in the next 15 years would be set aside for payment of the road assessments whereas the assessments total only $131,580. More than 50 other counties have estimated they will lose more license plate money than the amount of the assessments.

Of the $131,580 in outstanding assessments in this county $74,547 is for township road improvements and $50,949 for county road improvements.

Although Marion county has followed closely the movement of other counties to fight the law it never has taken an active part in the move officials said.

As the law came before the state supreme court today more than half of the states counties were banded together as friends of the court and presented briefs to help it reach a decision on a Geauga county taxpayer's suit to compel the county auditor to refund the county's outstanding

Files Motion in Action Restraining Company from Building Line

The C. D. & M. Electric Co. today filed a motion in one of the three injunction suits brought against it by farmers who seek to restrain the company from building poles and power lines on or near their property in rural districts.

The injunction was obtained by Hubert C. Ackley, who said the company was about to proceed with the work against his will.

Food Prices Drop Here As Processing Tax Ends

Food costs have dropped approximately four per cent in Marion in the last month largely due to the elimination of processing taxes levied in connection with the agricultural adjustment program.

Substantial reductions in flour prices and in the cost of many kinds of meat directly due to the elimination of the processing taxes have been largely responsible for the general decrease although prices of canned foods have not been affected a checkup among Marion grocers showed.

The current siege of zero weather however is pressing egg prices upward and delaying shipments so much that prices of some commodities have been rising slightly due to scarcity.

Flour prices have dropped from 10 to 15 cents for a 24½ pound sack reflecting the removal of the processing tax of approximately $1.25 a barrel grocers said.

Most grocers agreed that meats sugar and dairy products have dropped from four per cent or more in the last month. Lard is off a full cent a pound as compared with January.

Current food prices grocers said represent approximately 75 per cent of the cost of foods and prices in the period of 1923-29. Flour ads read slightly higher last year but not more than an average of three or four per cent grocers and meat dealers say.

All of them emphasized that food prices fluctuate as much due to week to week changes in the supply and demand that it is difficult to trace accurately the trend of food prices without a system in study of average costs. Such factors as the current cold weather enter into costs they said.

Food shoppers however are buying about the same kinds of food they purchased in recent years with the pressure for economy in food buying lightening noticeably in the last year. The housewives are watching their pennies as always but there is nevertheless a demand for the best cuts of meat and a call for quality as well as reasonable prices one grocer said.

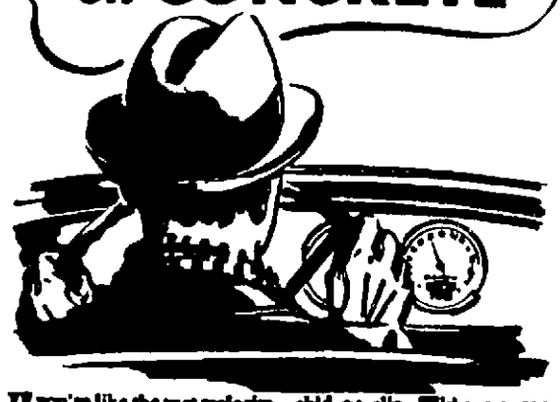
Save time-with safety on CONCRETE



If you're like the vast majority of drivers, you travel faster on concrete without knowing it! Check up on your next trip and see if it isn't so.

Concrete makes your car run better; lets the motor settle into a sweet, steady hum that literally eats up the miles. It relieves you of tension and fatigue. There are no ruts to fight; no bumps and jolts to tear at the steering wheel; no tendency to skid or slip. Without a conscious thought, you go faster because you know you're safer on concrete!

Of course you know that concrete roads are economical from the standpoint of upkeep. But do you know that they actually cost less to build than other roads of equal load-bearing capacity? And that they cost as much as 2¢ per mile less to drive on than inferior surfaces?

"An Open Letter to Henry Ford" gives the facts about concrete. Free for the asking.

Concrete IS THE REAL LOW-COST ROAD

IN VICE ROUNDUP

The latest arrest in New York's sensational $12,000,000 vice scandal, uncovered by Special Prosecutor T. E. Dewey, is Mrs. Mae Scheible, above, named as one of the higher-ups in a nation-wide ring engaged in traffic in women and young girls.

The Stars Say--

For Friday, Feb. 14

A DAY of much significance is forecast from the dominant lunar operations, stagnant or crystalized. This may relate to property or real possessions, but will result in putting the fortunes and hitherto doubtful affairs on a solid basis. But in all be wise about personal peculiar mental twists and also shun petty disputes.

Those whose birthday it is are on the threshold of a year offering a definite step in the direction of stabilizing the fortunes and increasing the possessions after a period of long-thwarted and stagnant conditions. Deal with elders, mergers, rings or secret organizations, but be not actuated by peculiar mental slants or by wrangling.

A child born on this day may be deep, studious, faithful and hard working, but may have moments of mental distortions or confusion, or tendencies to impulsive or quarrelsome flares. It will find favor with elders and old institutions.

Notable nativity: C. L. Sholes, inventor, typewriter.

Your Health

BY DR. R. S. COPELAND

Whooping Cough.

WHOOPING COUGH is one of the most widely prevalent of all the contagious diseases. It is especially common in children. Usually the child contracts the disease before the tenth year.

No doubt you will be astonished to learn that in 1934 this disease caused more deaths among children than diphtheria and scarlet fever combined. It must not be regarded as a mild and unimportant infection. It is dangerous in early childhood and especially so in infancy.

Over six thousand deaths are reported every year in the United States as due to whooping cough and its complications. Of these 6 per cent are of infants under one year of age, 90 per cent are children under five years and 99 per cent are under 10 years of age.

Whooping cough is a dangerous disease because of its complications. More than three thousand infants and children die each year from broncho-pneumonia which has followed whooping cough.

Whooping cough is an infection of the upper air passages caused by a germ called the bacillus pertussis. It is sometimes referred to as the Bordet Gengon bacillus because it was first described by Doctors Bordet and Gengon in 1906.

The disease is spread by coughing and sneezing. Have you ever seen a child with whooping cough during one of his severe paroxysms of coughing? If so you will understand how it is possible for the young patient literally to fill the air with germs spraying them a distance of six or eight feet.

Unlike other infectious diseases whooping cough cannot be spread indirectly. By this is meant that the disease can only be passed on to others by contact with the one who actually has the disease.

I am glad to say that reports are increasingly encouraging as regards the value of Sanoflox vaccine used as a means of protecting against the disease. This vaccine may be given infants in the second half of the first year of life. Children who have not been inoculated with the vaccine are advised to have it done.

The injections are painless and safe. They are given in each arm at weekly intervals. The amount of the vaccine is increased each time until a total of 8 c. c. has been given.

Dr. Copeland is glad to answer inquiries from readers who send addressed stamped envelops with their questions. All inquiries should be addressed to him in care of this newspaper.

MAN LEAPS TO DEATH FROM AN AIRPLANE

Pilot Tries To Hold Him in but Fails; Says He Was Hired for Taxi Flight.

By The Associated Press

OAKLAND, Calif., Feb. 13—A man tentatively identified as Harold A. Sprague leaped to his death from an airplane 2,000 feet above San Francisco bay, despite an attempt by the pilot to dive under and catch the falling body.

Seeing his passenger was about to jump, Pilot Emanuel Henderson nosed down the ship to try to hold the man in his seat. The man jumped clear. Then the airman vainly tried to maneuver the plane into the path of the falling body.

Identification was made from a wallet the man left at the Municipal airport. It contained automobile driver licenses issued by California and Michigan and 85 cents in cash.

At his rooming house one John Lord, M. P. Comsky said he knew the man as J. A. Sprague, formerly of Denver, with a wife and child in Chicago.

"It all happened so quickly and unexpected I didn't have time to do anything. I made a lunge for him and tried to grab him but I couldn't reach him without releasing the control.

Naval authorities began a search for the body.

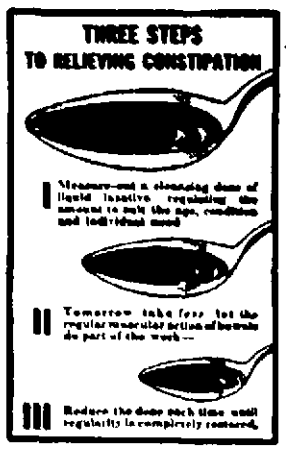
THREE STEPS TO RELIEVING CONSTIPATION



I Measure—and a measuring dose of liquid laxative regulating the amount to suit the age, condition and individual need.

II Tomorrow take four, for the regular muscular action of bowels do part of the work—

III Reduce the dose each time until regularity is completely restored.

You can find no safer advice than this to find the solution to your bowel worries.

Just do what hospitals do and the doctors insist on. Use a liquid laxative and you can bring yourself to clockline regularity without strain or ill effect.

You can use a liquid laxative at home. And if you knew what a doctor knows, you would use only the liquid form. A liquid can always be taken in gradually reduced doses. Reduced dosage is the real secret of relief from constipation.

Ask a doctor about this. Ask your druggist how very popular liquid laxatives have become. They give the right kind of help and right amount of help. Taking a little less each time gives the bowels a chance to act of their own accord until they are moving regularly and thoroughly without any help at all.

Once you have experienced this comfort you will never go back to any form of help that can't be regulated to suit the need.

The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara — both natural laxatives that form no habit even in children. The action is gentle but sure. It will relieve any sluggishness or bilious condition due to constipation. It is the very nicest tasting mineral acting preparation you can buy. So, try Syrup Pepsin. Taking regulated doses till Nature restores regularity.

Real Sport.

By the story of Sen. Borah in his familiar role of leading congressional dissenter instead of in the unfamiliar role of presidential candidate one may conclude that the lion of Idaho is having as much fun as he ever had in a long and active life.

He has the apple cart balanced on one wheel and the apples are starting to roll. He has been the cause of more soul searching in a political sense than most congressional "progressives" dare hope to be. He has got more attention than any other presidential candidate despite circumstances which seem to bar him from his party's nomination.

For Sen. Borah it must be real sport. His reputation in congress has been built on just such activity. He has been for years an insatiable dissenter, putting in numerable causes and their pleaders on the defensive. His present activities in behalf of liberalizing the Republican party represent a dominant characteristic in his political nature.

No one can foresee the ultimate result of the senator's agitation. He probably is no more certain of what he can accomplish than anyone else. Yet, it is difficult to sympathize with the gloomy ones who feel certain Sen. Borah is going to spoil everything. Their dismal certainty seems rather to be a confession of weakness. If they can't keep Bill from tipping their applecart they don't seem to have a clear claim to the apples.

A Nautical President

One of President Roosevelt's hobbies is sailing boats. Another is politics which he has developed to the status of occupation. There is an inviting comparison between sailing and politics.

A good sailor knows how to make the most of a breeze. He knows when to crowd on more canvas and when to furl his sails. If he is a capable yachtsman he is familiar also with the trick of becalming his opponent.

The trick consists of maneuvering the opponent into a position where the wind can be stolen from his sails by cutting between him and the direction of the breeze. That is precisely what Mr. Roosevelt has done.

The opposition was moving along briskly ahead of a constitutional issue. Its sails were full of warm air generated by discussion of new deal tactics with regard to the Constitution. Apparently Mr. Roosevelt was taking the Constitution lightly.

Recently he has altered his political course. By asking congress to repeal the tobacco, cotton and potato control acts and by withholding support from congressional proposals to curb the power of the supreme court he has spilled the wind from the opposition's sails.

There still is a constitutional problem but there no longer is any constitutional issue strong enough to be effective. What ever the ultimate intentions of Mr. Roosevelt and his advisers may turn out to be they will evince as much respect for the Constitution and the supreme court during the campaign as any member of the Liberty League.

Navigators for the opposition seeking the privilege of handling the ship of state have better reason than ever to respect the sea going man in the White House. He understands the tricks of his trade as well as those of his hobby.

New Possibilities

Reading of the campaign being conducted in the United States and Canada by the American Jewish Joint Distribution committee for overseas rehabilitation and emergency aid one becomes aware of important new possibilities in solving an ancient and hitherto insoluble problem.

American Jews plan to raise $3,500,000 for the aid of Jews in Europe including those Jews who have been forced by persecution to seek refuge. The campaign will be directed and supported by many of the most influential Jews in the United States and Canada.

In other words it is an attempt to transfer from one group to a less fortunate group some of the freedom which American Jews are privileged to have. It is an impressive and generously conceived experiment in racial improvement.

Unfortunately, it was made necessary largely by a recurrence of the mad dog Jew baiting which has afflicted Europe for many centuries. Jews have been strengthened by persecution before, however. Some of the more intelligent minds in the intolerant official circles of Germany may grasp the idea that there is nothing to be gained by abusing Jews except a stronger bond of unity among the Jews themselves. The cases reasonably supported by funds should have made it possible at last for the scattered members of the Jewish race to stand together in common defense.

Over the Railroad Tracks

[illegible] in congress creates a popular acceptance of the theory that the United States and Japan are likely to clash in the Pacific ocean. Americans generally seem to worry less about Japan's troubles and more about their own.

Japan's policy is to include China in its sphere of influence in Asia. It means Japan will consider itself paramount in matters of principle and practice. Already it has established a protectorate over Manchukuo (Manchuria) and has designs on China proper. As to the ultimate clash with Great Britain and the United States, the two things are [illegible]

Great Britain and the United States want the right to trade in the Pacific. They have a right to trade in China. Japan's attempt to establish a protectorate over China will bring it into conflict with Great Britain and the United States. The two great powers are far from the Chinese market.

The matter is complicated by the questions of imperial [illegible] control of the Pacific. Japan is bid for trade supremacy in India, the possibility of Japanese aggression in Siberia and the presence of the Mediterranean area. Stripped of [illegible] however it is the simple case of one boy's rights when he gets on the railroad tracks into another boy.

For years the United States and Great Britain along with other occidental nations have been exploiting Chinese markets under the cover of Japanese imperialistic methods and militarists. It was feared by Japan would retaliate when it believed it had grown strong enough to defy rivals from the other side of the world. That time has come.

Japan plainly intends to exercise authority in its own backyard. Unfortunately that will entail unpleasantness with certain nations it regards as trespassers but Japan is ready to do whatever is necessary. Whatever the other nations may think Japan is going to be the master of Asia. Henceforth China will be in the Japanese sphere of influence.

Must the United States take the position that Japan is to be viewed with suspicion and even with hatred because it is doing a natural thing. Has two populations be distrustful of each other because of the jealousies of merchants? That is the direction in which the matter is moving and in which it will continue to move unless checked by an aroused public opinion.

100 Percent.

The country is unusually interested in the newest United States senator, Rose McConnell Long of Louisiana. When she took the oath of office last Monday the senate reached its full membership of 96 once more.

Sen. Long has no record in politics she is in the senate because of two unforeseen incidents, the assassination of her husband, Huey P. Long and the death of the man who had been designated as her husband's successor in the senate, O. K. Allen.

It is possible that Mrs. Long like the senate's other woman member, Mrs. Hattie Caraway may make for herself a career in politics. That remains to be seen. Much depends on the willingness of her late husband's friends to support whatever political ambition she may develop in her new position.

Apparently Sen. Long has been well coached. She may be merely a sharp observer but who could have devised a better beginning than her pledge to be 100 per cent for labor and the farmer? She will vote she says for everything helpful to them.

The first lesson in politics is to learn where the votes are located. The second lesson is to learn to line up the votes by getting on the popular side. Sen. Long a child in knowledge of practical politics is ready to advance from the first to the second grade already.

Neighborhood History

ORIGIN OF NAME

Grand township in Marion county received its name from the fact that at the time of its organization it was the largest division of the county and therefore a grand division.

At the first election held June 26, 1824, 12 votes were cast for William Cochran who was elected justice of the peace. At an election held Oct. 12 the same year 13 votes were cast for Jeremiah Morrow for governor and six for Allen Trimble showing an increase of seven votes in four months.

Among the first white settlers were James Stiverson and family who settled in the north part of the section in 1821-22. Others who took up homesteads in the section early in its settlement were Joseph and Merick Higgins and their families, Jacob Osborn, Henry Deal, Elisha Davis and Champion Terry.

Record Shows Court Rulings Consistent

Seemingly Contradictory Opinions Apply to Different Circumstances, Investigation Shows

By DAVID LAWRENCE

Copyright 1936, by The Marion Star

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Twice in the last forty-eight writers and critics who are adopting the new deal attitude toward the supreme court, namely that the court's opinions are arbitrary and hence political, have pointed to instances of alleged contradictions between opinions rendered this year and on previous occasions.

While there have always been and probably always will be differences of opinion, the point as reflected in their decisions, the fact remains that an examination of these supposedly contradictory opinions usually shows that the cases either involved a different set of facts or the conclusions were based on an entirely different principle of constitutional law.

It is asserted, for instance, that Justice Sutherland who on Monday of this week rendered on behalf of a unanimous supreme court an opinion upholding the freedom of the press joined in 1931 with three other justices to dissent from the decision rendered by the five justices who upheld the freedom of the press.

It is further asserted that in 1935 to 6 decision of 1931 now has caused the minority to change its mind and that hence similar progress might well be expected with respect to issues such as were contained in the AAA.

But what are the facts? For one thing when once a principle is settled by a 5 to 4 decision the minority accept it as binding upon them in a subsequent case. Thus the key constitutional law is developed in America. For instance on Jan. 6 of this year the supreme court by a vote of 6 to 3 invalidated the AAA processing tax law and on Jan. 13—just seven days later—the rice millers processing tax case was settled by a unanimous opinion. Now the majority of Jan. 6 did not change the views of the minority. They might well retain their original views. But they recognized the binding character of the precedent.

Entirely apart however from this aspect of seeming uniformity of principle there can be found in reading up the "minnesota" case that the issue there was vastly different from the one raised by the Louisiana state law against newspapers. The Minnesota law was aimed at a newspaper primarily publishing scandalous and defamatory matter. Justice Butler who wrote the dissenting opinion said:

The record shows and it is conceded that defendant's regular business was the publication of malicious, scandalous and defamatory articles concerning the principal public officers, leading newspapers of the city, many private persons and the Jewish race. It also showed the plan their purpose at all hazards to continue to carry on the business.

In every edition slanderous and defamatory matter predominates to the practical exclusion of all else. Many of the statements are so highly improbable as to compel a finding that they are false. The articles themselves exhibit malice.

The dissenting justices insisted that an insolvent publisher against whom the laws of libel could not effectively operate could damage the property and liberty of the citizen. The majority opinion held that there was still adequate methods of securing redress and refused to consider the Minnesota statute as valid. Chief Justice Hughes said:

It is recognized that punishment for the abuse of this liberty accorded to the press is essential to the protection of the public and that the common law rules that subject the libeler to responsibility for the public offense as well as for the private injury are not abolished by the protection accorded by our constitutions.

The law of criminal libel rests upon that secure foundation. There is also the conceded authority of courts to punish for contempt when publications directly tend to prevent the proper discharge of judicial functions.

So neither the majority nor minority opinion in that Minnesota case in any way doubted that limitations on the freedom of the press exist if the laws of libel are violated. The supreme court justices differed only on the extent to which the citizen could be protected from abuse by defamatory newspapers. Upon what remedy was available there and there was not in the minority opinion the slightest suggestion of a denial of the freedom of the press as generally understood. In the Louisiana case, on the other hand, the issue turned on the right of a state to single out newspapers and punish them for hostile criticism.

Another alleged contradiction was commented on by critics last week when by a 6 to 3 decision the supreme court held that the North Dakota tax commission had used an arbitrary method of valuing the Great Northern railway property. This was contrasted with a 6 to 3 opinion—by the same justices in the majority and minority—last June in a telephone rate case.

Instead of inconsistency there was consistency in these two cases. In the one the majority held that the North Dakota tax commission used an arbitrary method in valuing the Great Northern railway property for purposes of taxation and in the other the court held that the Maryland utilities commission in valuing the property for the purposes of rate-making also used an arbitrary method. The minority's objections were likewise consistent.

It is significant that the minority in the case decided last week did not in its opinion argue that the court had contradicted itself. In fact there is no reference at all in the minority opinion of Feb. 3, 1936 to the telephone case of June 1935. Yet published press reports about a supposed contradiction have been widespread.

There was in both cases a criticism by the majority justices of the method used by a state commission in arriving at the value of a property. But the reasons and circumstances for constituting the method of valuation faulty were different in each case and so were the methods of measurement.

The supreme court is not immune from criticism any more than is any other branch of the government but it is entitled to a fair report of what it does just as is any other branch of the government, especially when the written record of the court's opinions is available to all who care to read them.

Behind the News

Men and Affairs Under The Washington Spotlight

By PAUL MALLON

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—Phantom trumpeters of the new deal have been blowing in here and there and the words have been coming out orbicularly that there will be no bonus taxes.

That tune will be kept up until after congress has grappled with and has been thrown by the problem of raising about $500,000,000 for the so-called farm relief program.

When the farm tax grappling match is over and settled congress will get a little note directly or indirectly from the White House reminding it that there is a matter of amortizing the bonus yet to be disposed of. Just make a note of that. The amount of money which will be requested is $135,000,000 a year.

Program

This seems to comprise the whole inside legislative program of the new deal for the remainder of the session. A wide variety of assorted excise taxes to pay the farm bill is known to have been prepared secretly by the treasury department. These will be submitted to congress when congress asks for them, but not before. The administration wants to back into that situation cautiously, avoiding stress on it as much as possible and ducking direct recommendations wherever possible.

Less caution will be displayed later in regard to the bonus taxes because the new dealers half expect congress to walk out without enacting bonus taxes.

But the important thing now is that the new deal program has been privately concluded that it contemplates approximately $800,000,000 of new taxes and no more (no income, sales and corporate increases). No additional legislation will be requested. No pending legislation is considered important except routine continuance of neutrality and routine government appropriations bills.

That is all business men and politicians need to expect.

Pulsations

New deal moderates are jubilant. As they describe it the public pulse is right for a sharp curtailment. It was not right when the budget was drawn up last fall. They assert Mr. Roosevelt is taking hold of this issue more enthusiastically than anything in new deal history. They promise a real effort and not just a political effort to establish a better campaign front.

The change on the inside has come they say within the past week. What wrought it is clear. The bad reaction to farm and bonus taxes encouraged an economizing line of thought but the growth of the Landon campaign must not be and has not been overlooked. Gov. Landon's thrift record has struck a popular chord.

Nobody a word on the extent of the curtailment will be worth much however until the savings are laid down officially on the dotted line.

Cooperation

Senator Pittman said some sharp things about Japan out in Nevada before congress opened. Upon his arrival here shortly thereafter he indicated he had been misquoted by the press. The speech he delivered in the senate Monday was about the same one he made in Nevada with a few fancier trimmings. There will be no assertion of misquotation this time.

You may deduce that this indicates Pittman must have spent the intervening six weeks finding out what a good speech he had made in Nevada. There is more to the repetition that that.

Pals on Capitol Hill say he let the state department have four days' advance notice of his speech and its contents. The department made no effort to tone him down. Apparently it shares some of the senatorial displeasure at certain propaganda circulated recently in this country by an able Japanese spokesman. To quite the gentleman was one of the hidden powers of the speech.

Notes

Treasury Secretary Morgenthau still inside able casting about for a conservative successor for treasury but found few eligible applicants for the job. Jumping the new deal debt to build one of the softer government positions.

The Black committee has run into constitutional trouble trying to collect answers to questionnaires from various business corporations. Private citizens have refused several corporations to provide under the fourth amendment. There will be a peck of trouble about this when the committee starts hearings.

Congressmen don't remember it but they passed a law in 1934 prevent the government officials from recommending new taxes. The statute specifically states that no recommendation as to how the revenue need of the government should be met shall be submitted to congress by any officer or employee of an department unless at the request of either house of congress.

Both J. P. Morgan and Mrs. Roosevelt in their definitions of the leisure class neglected to mention the 11,000,000 unemployed.

Glancing Backwards

TEN YEARS AGO

It was Saturday, Feb. 13, 1926. Norbert A. Peterson, prisoner of Gerald Chapman and George Dutch Anderson, notorious criminals, said to have been partners in crime, was arrested in New York City after a furious battle with police. Peterson and three others also indicted were charged with robbing the postoffice at Eastview, N. Y., in January.

It was announced that the Marion Steam Shovel Co. had established branch manufacturing facilities in a large plant at Ipswich, near London, Eng. The purpose, according to the announcement was to establish the company's foreign trade which had dwindled from a large volumne of business to almost nothing since the World war.

Mrs. Mollie E. Perfer, 64, died at her home on North Grand avenue.

Although ice and snow were still on the ground, Marion boys were beginning to play marbles and kites were reported in progress in various parts of the city.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Jackson of Forest street.

More than 900 members and guests were present at the second annual benefit valentine party of the De Molay club held in the Far East auditorium.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

Tuesday, Feb. 13, 1916.

Harry Meade, tenor soloist of the Wade Park M. E. church in Cleveland and a former Marion resident, sang a solo part in the chorus, "The Reason of Mendelssohn's Nineteenth Psalm" in the Keppel series at Trinity Baptist church.

J. V. White, state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league, addressed a three meeting at Epworth M. E. church and said: Our American voters have more to fear from the American high ball than from the European war. He asked men of the city not to send letters and telegrams to their own senators and congressmen but to Senator Pomerene urging their help in securing the prohibition amendment to the constitution.

The Epworth league of Epworth church held special services in observance of Lincoln's birthday. They heard an address on Lincoln by H. Edmund Hill, Marion attorney.

William H. Mabie, Erie engineer was confined to his home on East Center street as a result of injuries suffered in a fall from the running board of his engine at Kent.

New York Notes

O. O. McIntyre's Diary of Fact, Fancy and Folks

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Max Gordon continues to be the wonder man of theatrical production. Six years ago he stepped from the obscurity of a small time booking agency office into the formation of musical revues with The Band Wagon featuring the Astaires.

The head waggers called him a fool in the pan. But Gordon continued them by growing more ambitious and artistic each season. Certainly this could not be the Max Gordon of the Broadway curb. The fellow who wangled split weeks for third rate pittsburghers in Hokus and Hackensack. But I was.

About two years after his meteoric rise he went back stage in a London theater to introduce himself to Noel Coward. So fascinated was Coward with this shy almost inarticulate fellow with such a passion for the stage they talked until 3 a. m. And Gordon produced Cowards next play in New York.

This season he has produced the two most significant plays, Jane Austen's Pride and Prejudice and Miss Wharton's Ethan Frome. Last season he proved he could be even more spectacular than Ziegfeld with The Great Waltz. A genius without guile he still lunches at drug stores and smokes nickel cigars.

Esquire has been bucking a temperature over an anonymous scribbler who has been trying to impress the editors he is the guy to take the place of their drama critic J. V. A. Weaver resigned. And the editors think so too but they cannot find him. He sends in most tantalizing paragraphs of comment and observations with a dare you-to-hire-me taunt. Just when suspicion had centered on three scribes, New York writers, the critiques began popping in from Wauhegan, Muskegon and where not. And the editors are higher in the air than ever.

In the days of Hampton's magazine there arrived one day the manuscript of a short story that was a little gem, 3,500 words. With it was a note from a woman who preferred anonymity. If the story was accepted she would reveal her name and claim the check after it was printed. Naturally there was suspicion and researchers went to work but could find no suggestion of piracy. The story appealed with an explanatory note. Nothing was ever heard from the author or was there ever any kick back as to its originality. The plot concerned a lady gesture in avenging a jilt and editors believed the write was the jilted lady in real life.

Eleanor Powell's recent collapse again accentuates the terrific strain that is the accompaniment of sudden success among the strenuous dancers. At the same time she buckled Bill Robinson was trundled to a hospital and Ray Boelger was in convalescence. Nimble hoofers are of necessity frail. The only exception is the sturdy Will Mahoney who although losing seven pounds with each performance shows no signs of fatigue. Jack Donahue literally killed himself with this gruelling routine and Fred Astaire was worn to a whisper when he movie gave him a respite from daily cavorting. Hal LeRoy too as I recall had a recent break down. The new breakleg demands of dancing mean bigger rewards but also bigger hospital bills. And of on what Tad called a bum ticker.

* * *

And ballroom dancing has spiraled out of temporary obscurity with a mighty flourish. There was a time when $200 a week was top price for a couple and most of them wound up a season in debt. But not even the Castles, Maurice and Walton or Hawkesworth and Durant approach the salary of Veloz and Yolanda. They were recently paid $7,000 a week for a Chicago engagement, an all time high.

Crows As Food May Solve Old Farm Problem

By The Associated Press.

TULSA Okla. Feb. 13—Fastidious Tulsa diners have developed a taste for roast crow—and it may mean the end for the black robber of the corn rows

Because—believes Dr T W Stallings a crow hater—as a table delicacy the field pest will rise to the dignity of a game bird. As a game bird unprotected he will become extinct.

And Tulsa suddenly is enthusiastic over crow meat. Hospitals and schools are experimenting in crow cookery housewives have proclaimed the bird a choice morsel and there is a market price on his head.

Butchers have small boys out scouring the fields for crows at $1 50 a dozen

The whole idea belongs to Dr Stallings former county health superintendent.

For years he watched the farmers losing war against the crop spoiling crows Finally he decided the best way out was to eat the birds

He experimented first on newspapermen Served them a banquet heard them say they liked it then told them they had dined on crow He followed with another trial dinner then sent his idea up against its supreme test.

Housewives a domestic science teacher, a dean of hospital nurses and Mayor T A Penney's wife ate crow They were enthusiastic.

"There is no reason why the crow shouldn't be good food," said Dr Stallings. "I have investigated the bird's feeding habits and found it cleaner than—you wouldn't believe it—chickens."

THE patriotic holiday and St. Valentine day suggested the decorative theme for the Wednesday Night Dance club's 18th year dance last evening at Schwinger's hall. The table arranged for a buffet lunch, was laid with a cover of white over blue and centered with a miniature drum filled with red roses and ferns, high green tapers arranged in a heart-shape which formed a background for the flower centerpiece.

Large red hearts decorated the walls and were repeated in the dance programs. Completing the color scheme was a large heart-shaped clock, the hands of which were used by the men for partners in one of the novelty dances. The dance program was played by Max Fischer's orchestra of Kenton and the grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. James C. Woods, social chairmen.

The dance, one of the climaxes of the season was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. Karl Holl, chairmen of the host and hostess committee. Mr. and Mrs. V. Burt Symes, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. White, Mr. and Mrs. S. For Bad Winter Coughs, Mix This Remedy Yourself

Saves Good Money! No Cooking!

If you want the best cough remedy that money can buy, mix it at home. It costs very little, yet it's the most reliable, quick acting medicine you ever used. The way it takes hold of distressing coughs, giving immediate relief is astonishing.

Any druggist can supply you with 2½ ounces of Pinex. Pour this into a pint bottle and add granulated sugar syrup to make a full pint. To make syrup, use 2 cups of sugar and one cup of water and stir a few moments until dissolved. No cooking needed. It's no trouble at all and gives you four times as much cough medicine for your money—a real family supply. Keeps perfectly and tastes fine.

It is surprising how quickly this loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, helps clear the air passages and thus ends a bad cough in a hurry.

Ohio Primary May Decide G. O. P. Presidency Choice

By MAURICE H. MERRYFIELD
International News Writer

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 13—Ohio holds the current spotlight in the race for the Republican presidential nomination because of two reasons; first, Sen. William E. Borah officially tossed his hat in the ring when he decided to enter the state primary, and, second, the national convention will be held in Cleveland in June.

Decision of Sen. Borah to enter the Ohio primary puts Ohio in the position of the political weather vane of the nation, since it will probably be the first test in power between the Idaho senator and Col. Frank Knox, Chicago publisher.

Ohio's "old guard" Republicans did not receive the news of Borah's decision with unqualified enthusiasm since they preferred that the state delegation go on record for some favorite son, thus making it possible to "trade" when the convention gets under way.

Garfield a "Favorite Son"

James R. Garfield, son of the martyr President, looms as a possible candidate for the "old guard" machine. Congressman Chester Bolton was also reported as possible choice among the "favorite sons" but his official duties in connection with the convention have virtually eliminated him from the field. Robert A. Taft, son of the former President, has also been mentioned as a possible "favorite son" candidate.

Gov. Alfred Landon of Kansas, also a leading candidate for the G. O. P. presidential nomination, is another important factor in the situation. Landon is faced with the necessity of deciding whether he will remain a "dark horse" and allow other candidates to go out and win delegates, or whether he will actively enter the fray.

Landon is believed to have strong support in Ohio rural districts and might capture the Ohio delegation if "old guard" Republicans were able to pledge the delegates to a favorite son, leaving the Ohio vote in a strategic position for a switch to the Landon band wagon if such a move started at the convention.

It seems unlikely that Landon will enter the Ohio primary because his strategy appears to be one of "watchful waiting," a policy which might turn the tide in his favor at the convention of a deadlock should ensue between other candidates.

Ohio Politics Involved

Numerous elements complicate the Ohio Republican situation and make it almost impossible to predict what the outcome will be. Walter F. Brown, Toledo political boss and postmaster general under Herbert Hoover, remains loyal to his ex-chief. Ed Scnorr of Cincinnati, state chairman, represents the "old guard" which is expected to throw its strength behind the "favorite son" movement.

Two other powers in Ohio Republican politics are state campaign managers for Borah and Knox. Daniel E. Morgan, former city manager of Cleveland, is Ohio manager for the Idaho senator, while Clarence Brown, defeated gubernatorial candidate in 1934, is in command of the Knox forces in the state.

The outcome of the Ohio Republican primary, May 12, takes on further significance in view of the fact that Ohio, traditionally a pivotal state, might easily swing to either party, depending upon future developments. The Democratic situation in Ohio has not been the happiest since the clash between Gov. Martin L. Davey and Harry Hopkins, federal relief administrator, a feud which created considerable discord in the Democratic ranks. But Governor Davey recently went to Washington to promise that he would be "a good boy."

Every Joint In His Body Ached

MR. W. L. PHILLIPS

Many people think everything in the world is wrong with them. The joints ache, muscles are sore, feel dizzy, have no appetite and can't sleep. What they need is to clean out the poisons from the systems caused by constipation and also give the stomach a little help, and soon all these misery troubles disappear. Vendol acts quickly, yet very pleasantly, on the stomach and bowels, and does more good all over this land than any other medicine. Mr. W. L. Phillips who lives at Alliance, Ohio says, "When I started on Vendol I believe every muscle and joint in my body was sore. I was constipated all the time and really believe this was at the bottom of it all because after taking Vendol and the little Vendol Laxative Tablets, they cleared out my system and made me 'regular' every day and all my aches disappeared and have never bothered me since. I also noticed that Vendol put a quick stop to the sour, acid, gassy condition in my stomach and now I eat hearty meals and never have a heavy feeling in my stomach nor a lump in my throat. I sleep sound and feel better in every way since taking the Vendol treatment."

It is not an unusual thing to hear people say they got such quick relief from Vendol that it surprised them. The reason is simple. It is because Vendol is an honest medicine, not a cure-all. Just good for certain troubles and quickly overcomes them.

VENDOL is sold by all the leading druggists everywhere and is highly recommended here by ADDIS ABABA, Feb. 13—Rev. Harold Street of Paxton, Ill., and Rev. John Trewin of Toronto have been released from custody in southern Gamo province and permitted to renew their missionary work in northern Gamo.

The government was informed of these developments today following an investigation into the arrest of the two missionaries last month.

Authorities considered southern Gamo unsafe in view of the war and the missionaries were taken from Shama, where their mission was established, to Godu, a safe village.

Mrs. Street and the Streets' four children went with the two missionaries to Godu with a military escort. The escort left after receiving assurances that the missionaries would not attempt to leave Godu.

Cornelius Van H. Engert, United States minister, approved Godu as a safer place for the concentration of missionaries remaining in Gamo province.

MYERS SEEKS OHIO SUPREME COURT JOB

Thus Removes Possible Foe from Davey's Path Toward Renomination.

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, Feb. 13—Secretary of State George S. Myers yesterday announced his candidacy for judge of the Ohio supreme court, thus removing one more prospective opponent from Gov. Martin L. Davey's path toward renomination.

Myers is serving his second term as secretary of state. In 1934 he carried 87 of the 88 counties at the Democratic primary and led the state ticket at the November election.

So far no Democratic aspirants have announced for Myers' post, but William J. Kennedy, former manager of the Cleveland office of the Home Owners Loan Corp., is expected to announce his candidacy Monday.

Myers' decision leaves only Lieut. Gov. Harold G. Mosier as a possible candidate against Davey at the May primary.

Mosier Denies Candidacy Yet

Mosier said yesterday he had not yet decided whether to run for governor. He denied a report that an announcement of his candidacy was to be made Saturday.

ONE GOOD HANGMAN NEEDED IN INDIANA

By The Associated Press

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 13—Efforts to obtain the services of a professional hangman to execute George W. Barrett, convicted slayer of Nelson B. Klein, federal agent, are being made by the United States marshal's office.

Barrett, a former Kentucky feudist, is sentenced to die before sunrise March 24. Communications have been made with Phil Hanna of Epworth, Ill., who is said to have participated in 68 hangings.

Bids must also be submitted for construction of a scaffold. Hanging was abolished in Indiana many years ago, when electrocution was adopted. Barrett, however, was convicted in federal court and must be hanged.

Colombia last year exported about 3,500,000 60-kilogram bags of coffee, a new high record.

3 CROATS GIVEN LIFE FOR SLAYING KING

Found Guilty of Complicity in Alexander's Killing and Sentenced to Guiana Colony.

By The Associated Press

AIX-EN-PROVENCE, France, Feb. 13—Three Croats, members of the Ustachi secret society, were found guilty of complicity in the assassination of King Alexander of Yugoslavia yesterday and sentenced to life imprisonment in the French Guiana prison colony.

Three other members of the alleged band of terrorists, held responsible for the shootings at Marseilles in October, 1934, also were convicted and sentenced to death although they have never been apprehended.

The jury which deliberated only a short time found extenuating circumstances in the cases of Mio Kraj, Zvonimin Pospechil and Ivan Raitich and recommended life imprisonment.

The men who received death sentences are Dr. Ante Pavelich, reputed head of the Ustachi, Eugene Kvaternik, Pavelich's assistant, and Gustave Perchetz.

The end of the trial came before a courtroom crowded to capacity with spectators.

The Yugoslavian monarch, Louis Barthou, French foreign minister, and two bystanders died at the time of the assassination. Dimitrov Velitchko, the acknowledged assassin, was fatally wounded at the time of the shooting by cuts from a French officer's saber.

FISHER WELCOMES LEIBOWITZ' EFFORTS

But Doubts His Usefulness or That Condemned Man Will Change His Plea.

By The Associated Press

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 13—The chief of Bruno Richard Hauptmann's defense staff, C. Lloyd Fisher, welcomed today the entrance of Samuel S. Leibowitz, New York criminal lawyer, into the celebrated case but expressed doubts of Leibowitz's usefulness.

Fisher, who was associated with the defense of the Bronx carpenter through his Flemington trial for the kidnap-murder of Col. Charles Lindbergh's first son, [illegible] doubted the condemned man would change his plea of innocence.

"Hauptmann has only one story to tell," said Fisher, "that story he told me the day of his arrest, at his trial at Flemington and has told me 50 times. That is the story I believe is true."

"If Mr. Leibowitz can't get on the story as told by Hauptmann I don't see how he can be of help."

Leibowitz, widely known for participation in many a sensational courtroom battle, including the defense of the "Scottsboro boys," presented yesterday to enter the Hauptmann defense, appeared at the behest of Hauptmann's wife, Anna.

Inventor of Basketball Being Honored This Week

The world of basketball this week is honoring Dr. James Naismith, inventor of the game, by taking contributions at all games to defray expenses of sending Dr. and Mrs. Naismith to Berlin where basketball will be included in the Olympic games for the first time. Dr. Naismith, left, is shown at Lawrence, Kas., with Dr. Forrest "Phog" Allen, athletic director and coach at Kansas university, who has been named to direct the American team. (Associated Press photo).

* * *

VERY commendable is the move by members of the National Association of Basketball Coaches to designate Feb. 7-15 as "National Naismith Week" in recognition of Dr. James A. Naismith's contribution to sport. The doctor invented basketball in 1891 while he was a member of the staff of the Y. M. C. A. college at Springfield, Mass.

Every high school, college and university in the country is asked to set aside one game in that week as the "Naismith game." One cent will be taken from each paid admission and turned over to the Naismith fund, by which the coaches' association hopes to send Dr. and Mrs. Naismith to the Olympic Games and, if the drive is a complete success, to found an annuity in their behalf.

Basketball was invented, Dr. Naismith relates, because the prospective "Y" secretaries were too full of life for the ordinary gymnasium exercises of dumbbells and Indian clubs. The youths craved action in the seasonal gap that came between football and baseball.

Dr. Luther Gulick, head of the physical education department at the Springfield Y. M. C. A. college, considered this a real problem and put it squarely up to young Naismith.

The youthful instructor recalled his boyhood game of "duck on the rock," and the comparative value of the tossed rock that was fairly apt to hit the "duck," and the hurled rock, that, if it did hit, sent the "duck" farther. He decided that, after all, the tossed missile was the better, and determined that as one of the principles of his new game.

Naismith reflected on the possibility of injury to the player if he were running with the ball, as in football, subject to being tackled and thrown on the hard gymnasium floor. He decided that it would be better for the holder of the ball to get rid of it to best advantage and let the other players run. Thus the pass was invented and the safety of the players conserved.

A goal on the floor he pondered, would be too easy for the defense to cover and it involved, also, the same danger of injury to players, so he decided that it would be well to have the goal above the heads of the players. Because the railing of the balcony of the Springfield gymnasium was 10 feet above the floor, that height became the standard for the goals. Placing the goals—old peach baskets located by the janitor, and thus attaching the name of basketball to the game—above the players' heads also compelled the tossing, rather than hurling of the ball. Because the baseball was too small to work well in such a passing or tossing game, he decided on the use of the soccer ball. Naismith's own Canadian game of lacrosse suggested the placing of players as forwards and guards, and thus he worked out the game.

The sport has distinct advantages that make for its popularity. It is full of action, yet does not require a large team or elaborate equipment. As Dr. Naismith says: "It is a game easy to play at, yet difficult to become perfect in."

WITTENBERG NEAR TOP IN OHIO LOOP

By The Associated Press

Wittenberg college cagers were still riding near the top of the Ohio conference race today after winning a close one from Bowling Green, 28 to 26 last night.

Ahead by one point at the half, 16 to 15, the invading Lutherans staved off a whirlwind drive by Bowling Green in the second period and froze the ball in the closing minutes.

Baldwin-Wallace, last year's conference champion, vanquished Case, 36 to 34, at Berea. The Scientists jumped into a 19 to 0 lead in the early minutes of the fray but as the period ended the Yellow Jackets were far ahead, 21 to 14. Case came back strong after the intermission.

Youngstown College's powerful outfit swamped Upsala of New Jersey, 51 to 20, at Youngstown. Franklin University of Columbus went to Rio Grande and came away with a 46 to 28 victory.

MISSOURI FARM GIRL BREAKS TWO RECORDS AT TRACK TOURNEY

Helen Stephens Looking Toward Olympics for New Laurels.

By The Associated Press

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Feb. 13—A lady streak of lightning from Missouri, who first brought the name of Helen Stephens into the headlines just a year ago, looked today toward the Olympic games as the final step to the top of the track world.

The Fulton, Mo., farm girl celebrated the first anniversary of her track stardom last night by tying the world record of 6.4 seconds in the 50-meter run of the National A. A. U. women's indoor track and field meet and setting a new American mark in the 8-pound shot put.

In hogging the limelight, the 18-year-old "Fulton flash"—now a freshman in William Woods college—also improved her last year's winning mark in the standing broad jump, making complete her defense of the three national laurels she won in her debut.

The tall, sober-faced girl was deprived last night of another opportunity of meeting Stella Walsh, Polish star whom she beat in the 50-meter event last year and who shares the world record that she equaled. But they probably will resume their rivalry in the Olympics next summer.

Miss Stephens tossed the shot 41 feet 7 inches, bettering the previous American woman's record of 40 feet, 11 inches, and stood and broad jumped 8 feet 4½ inches.

KIRKPATRICK UNITED GRANGE TEAMS WIN

Two Squads Deadlocked for First Place in County League Standings.

Kirkpatrick and Bethlehem teams continued in a deadlock for leadership in the Marion county grange league following games played last night at Kirkpatrick. Kirkpatrick grangers scored a 35 to 26 victory over the United team and Bethlehem defeated Grand Prairie cagers, 26 to 15.

Both the Kirkpatrick and the Bethlehem teams have a record of four victories in five contests. The United team has won two of five games while the Grand Prairie squad was unsuccessful in any of its five starts.

Hill, forward of the Kirkpatrick team, was accurate in his offensive work last night and made 10 field goals and a foul to lead his team with a total of 21 points scored.

Bethlehem's victory over Grand Prairie came as the result of a neat display of team work. V. Strine, P. Fogle and C. Strine made three goals each, to account for 18 of the team's 26 points.

OWENS PREPARING FOR OLYMPIC TRY

Track Coach Calls Negro's Ineligibility a "Blessing."

By The Associated Press

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 13—Coach Larry Snyder of Ohio State university track team called Jesse Owens' ineligibility for the winter campaign "a blessing in disguise" today and made plans to have the speedy Negro in prime condition for the Olympic tryouts.

Snyder explained that Owens' failure to pass a psychology test prevented his becoming stale in competition this winter as happened at the end of last year's track season.

He will enter the 100 and 200 meter dashes and broad jump in the Olympic tryouts.

WALDO TEAM WINS FROM AGOSTA HIGH

Girl Team's Victory Ninth Straight Win in County League Title Race.

The Waldo High school girls' basketball team surmounted another hurdle in its drive for the county league championship as it won its ninth consecutive loop victory at Agosta, Monday night, 32 to 15.

The Waldo boys' team won over Agosta, 22 to 11, to move into undisputed fifth place in the standings, after having been tied with Morral for that spot.

Only one game remains to be played for the Waldo teams. They will meet the Pleasant squads in a game postponed earlier in the season. Girls teams from both schools will be playing their final county league games with league leadership at stake. Claridon, in second place with one defeat in nine starts, could deadlock the girls' race by gaining a victory over Waldo and both teams would finish with 9 victories in 10 contests.

A victory for Waldo would give the team undisputed first place. Pleasant then would remain in second position without danger of being dropped lower, because of the fact that every other team has been defeated at least three times this season.

MARIETTA AGOG OVER ITS CHANCE TO WIN OHIO LEAGUE TITLE

Fans Recall State Champion High School Team of 22 Years Ago.

BY FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

MARIETTA, O., Feb. 13—Fans of this ancient Ohio river town were all agog today over the prospects of another championship basketball team.

The Pioneers of Marietta college, with 10 straight victories, rode the crest as the lone unbeaten Ohio conference team — but the old-timers still pointed with pride to that day 22 years ago when Marietta High school won the state championship.

Frank L. (Duke) Hayes, now coach of the Pioneers, was the star performer on that high school team. Jimmy Whiting, star of the Pioneers, is the son of Norm Whiting, who played with Marietta high in 1912 and started that school on the road toward the state title it reached two years later.

Recall "Golden Era"

Don and Cres Whiting, regarded as the greatest athletes ever developed at Marietta college, are uncles of the present star. With "Duke" Hayes, Don and Cres practiced basketball magic for Marietta from 1915 to 1918—the "golden era" of Pioneer athletic history.

Hayes and the two Whitings led Marietta to one-sided victories over West Virginia Wesleyan, West Virginia University, Wooster, Carnegie Tech, Pitt, Kentucky State, Chicago Y. M. C. A., and the famed Buffalo Germans who had won more than 100 in a row until they bumped into the pioneers.

"You'll have to go back to that period from 1915 to 1919 when Marietta teams were the scourge of the countryside to find a Pioneer team that in devastating speed, power and all-round brilliance equals the one moulded today by 'Duke' Hayes," said Don Drumm, intramural director.

And Drumm should know—he coached those 1915-19 quintets.

Three Sophs Are Stars

Marietta's success this year is attributed to three sophomore stars. Whiting and Clyde Young were members of the Marietta high school team which lost to Dover in the 1933 finals for the state title. The other is Harley Magee, former Parkersburg, W. Va., high school star, who was all-state forward in 1933.

The other regulars are upper classmen. Frank Fenton, the center, is six feet nine inches tall—the highest in the conference—and has not lost a tip-off this season. He's from Williamstown, W. Va., and was a Marietta regular his sophomore year at the age of 17.

Captain John Bowser of Youngstown, rated one of the best guards in the conference, is the balance-wheel of the team and second high scorer.

Marietta has three games to play, against Wittenberg, Ashland and Otterbein, Wittenberg coming up Saturday night, looms as the big hurdle despite the fact the Pioneers won an overwhelming victory over the Lutherans here a few weeks ago.

Threadgill, who wants to do 6-feet-9 before he's through, smashed the previous junior indoor mark by almost three inches last night, as he and five other athletes set up new records in the annual competition.

REALYHAM WINS CROWN

NEW YORK, Feb. 13—A blooky, cheerful little Realyham terrier, looking as if he'd be more at home chewing and shaking an old shoe than lording over the show ring, held the throne of dogdom today as the best of nearly 3,000 canine bluebloods which were entered in the sixtieth annual Westminster Kennel club dog show. The deep chested Realyham, St. Margaret Magnificient of Clairdale, owned by Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Penny's Clairdale kennels of Riverhead, N. Y., dethroned the tall aristocratic poodle, Nunsoe Duc de la Terrace of Blakeen, from Mrs. Sherman C. Hoyt's New York kennel, as champion last night at the climax of three days of judging.

U. S. LINKED TO PLAN TO DROP OIL BAN

By The Associated Press

Observers at Geneva said today they believed an embargo by the League of Nations against oil shipments was unlikely in view of the improbability that the United States government would take part in such an embargo.

The Ethiopian government reiterated that its forces had recaptured Korn Ali in southern Ethiopia from the Italians.

ROAD BOND REFUND LAW BEFORE COURT

road assessment bonds. The auditor had refused holding the law invalid.

Enforcement of the law is also held under injunction in Clark county and the fight against it opened there until filing of the Cuyahoga county suit. As a friendly action was taken to the district court of appeals. It has given no decision.

Held Unconstitutional

In making the injunction permanent Clark County Common Pleas Judge Golden C. Davis declared the law unconstitutional. The U. S. supreme court's decision killing the AAA stalled into the Ohio court chambers as a possible yard stick to measure the constitutionality of the Armbruster law.

The AAA decision was cited by Attorney Howard Dreshach of Columbus as applying directly to the Armbruster law which he said seeks to use automobile license money collected from motorists throughout the state to pay road assessment bonds in counties still having such obligations outstanding.

Attorney T. M. Doyle of Cleveland arguing the Armbruster law is still disputed Dreshach's contention. He insisted that the AAA decision held the processing tax was unconstitutional. Whereas there is no dispute about the constitutionality of the automobile license tax.

Members of the court pointed out the possibility of conflicting decisions should the Clark county case now before the court of appeals reach the supreme court tribunal also. In the case argued today six judges are required to hold the law unconstitutional. If the appellate court should affirm the Clark county decision favorable action of only four judges would be required to hold the law valid.

More than 80 counties contended in joining Clark county officials in their action that they would lose more than they would receive during the 15 years of the law's force.

Rep. C. H. Armbruster (D., Henry) replied that it would help keep the roofs over the heads of taxpayers. He was co-author of the bill with Sen. Keith Lawrence (D., Cuyahoga).

The law provides for allocation of 10 per cent of the revenue from the sale of automobile licenses to counties to refund outstanding bonds issued in anticipation of collection of assessments against abutting property.

Henry Worley, secretary of the Springfield Chamber of Commerce has been a leader in the fight against the law. Perry Atty. Gen. Gilbert W. Bettman and former Ohio Supreme Court Judge Harry Conn are co-counsel for the protesting counties.

The bulletin offers the following suggestions to aid the birds in getting food: nail suet on trees and poles throw out bread crumbs in protected areas and increase the range of feeding each day; get into the country and spread food in likely places; make a brush pile shelter under which to feed quail and pheasant; feed small birds suet or beef fat while finches and seed eating birds must be given vegetable food and to prevent food from scattering construct a triangular chicken coop like shelter.

In the meantime an appeal went out to people generally to come to the birds' rescue by throwing crumbs of bread or crackers on the snow or in shallow containers placed at vantage points in the yards of their homes.

Borah To Spread Drive

With an early preview of G. O. P. sentiment promised for April showing with both Col. Frank Knox and Sen. Borah entered in the Illinois primary there was evidence of further broadening of activity on the part of the veteran Idaho senator.

His forces were girding for action in Oregon, Wisconsin and Nebraska. They previously had made definite plans to enter Ohio.

Knox, Chicago publisher who has been making almost daily anti-new deal speeches declined yesterday to say in what states he and his own he would seek presidential convention delegates.

Lincoln day for the most part was given over to Republican speeches in honor of the birthday of the Civil war president in which there was a general assault on the administration and frequent references to the constitution.

Speak of "Torylism" Despotism

Such words as tories, despotism and dictatorship were used in reference to the new deal.

In Indianapolis however Secretary Wallace defended the administration. He too referred to the Constitution declaring that most of us thought the agricultural adjustment act and some of us including three justices of the supreme court think so still.

State Nation Confused

The outstanding state of the union at this hour he declared is a state of confusion, confusion in thought, confusion in government, confusion in economic life and confusion in ideals.

The former president accused the administration of having the worst unbalanced budget in history asserting that a balanced budget and a stable currency would put more men to work than the whole WPA.

Roosevelt Enters Race in Illinois

By The Associated Press

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Feb. 13—Petitions entering President Roosevelt in the April 14 Illinois Democratic presidential preferential primary were filed today at the office of Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes.

The President's signed declaration of his candidacy for a second term was received by mail from Chicago.

The petitions were circulated by National Committeeman Patrick A. Nash who conferred at Washington this week with Postmaster General Farley. Democratic leaders here said they expected Mr. Roosevelt would be unopposed in the advisory primary.

Two Republican candidates Sen. William E. Borah of Idaho and Col. Frank Knox of Chicago filed yesterday.

Lauders of Lincoln Plead for Harmony

By The Associated Press

Citing some of the Roosevelt administration plans for party harmony and discussion of the policies of Abraham Lincoln came from the Lincoln day banquets of Ohio Republicans last night.

The Republican party must stand for sound money and an honest standard of values said James R. Garfield of Cleveland at the Lucas county rally in Toledo.

Former Sen. Arthur R. Robinson of Hamilton told Cuyahoga county Rep. hillsites a higher tariff on farm products was needed to protect American farmers from foreign competition.

If the trend to Moscow continue he said industrial and economic losers will be the order of the day.

At Akron Rep. Bertrand W. Gearhart of California asserted there was no army of government sent to promote a life of abundance through scarcity for Abraham Lincoln.

At Newark Daniel E. Morgan former Cleveland city manager criticized President Roosevelt, attacking Democratic platform pledges but no been carried out. Election of a Republican this year he said would avert a break down of government.

At the annual fifth district Republican banquet in Van Wert a poll showed Gov. Alf M. Landon of Kansas as the favorite for the presidential nomination. The lines voted as follows: Landon 209, Col. Frank Knox 45, Sen. William E. Borah 8, Sen. Arthur Vandenberg 3, Herbert Hoover 3, Sen. Lester Dickinson 1, David Ingalls 1.

Robert A. Taft of Cincinnati speaking at a G. O. P. rally in Parkersburg, W. Va. said President Roosevelt was determined to change the whole character of the (American governmental) system either by circumventing the Constitution or by amending it."

Rep. John Cooper, Youngstown Republican told the Germantown, Pa., Republican club the President should "prohibit the products of child labor from Japan and other countries from entering the United States in competition with American workers and industries."

Col. Frank Knox who announced his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination yesterday, may reveal late this week his decision on seeking delegates in Ohio said Clarence J. Brown last night. Brown addressed Republicans here last night. H. E. Griffith candidate for secretary of state on the G. O. P. ticket also spoke.

At the same time in Newark Ed Schorr Republican state chairman, said the state central committee was still undecided whether to junk its plans to send a "favorite son" delegation to the national convention next June. Schorr was in Newark for a Lincoln day banquet.

Brown the leader of the Knox forces in Ohio said he planned to confer with the Chicago publisher in Chicago Friday or Saturday.

"He may decide then" declared Brown. "There is no reason for hasty action."

Brown was asked whether the Knox announcement in Boston and his declaration in Springfield, Ill., would effect plans in Ohio.

"Not that I know of," he replied.

Schorr said the central committee was awaiting further replies from its queries to various Republican presidential possibilities, asking if they desired to compete for Ohio delegates against Sen. William E. Borah.

Knox Pledges Aid To G.O.P. Nominee

By The Associated Press

BOSTON, Feb. 13—Col. Frank Knox of Chicago was pledged today to "fullest support of the Republican presidential nominee after becoming the second man definitely entered in the race for the G. O. P. nomination.

In a Lincoln day address last night Knox declared the nation faces an issue too real for any man to inject his selfish desires.

"I will give my fullest support to whomever the Republican party chooses as its standard bearer," he said.

Dickinson's Hat in Ring, Too

By The Associated Press

GREENSBORO, N. C., Feb. 13—Sen. L. J. Dickinson Republican of Iowa today had tossed his hat into the Republican presidential nomination ring but with the announcement he would not seek pledged delegates.

Here for a Lincoln day speech last night the temporary chairman of the Republican national convention in 1932 said in an interview that he was an aspirant for the nomination but would not enter any primary.

"I do not want pledged delegations," he said. "If I am nominated for President I desire it to be because the people believe I am the man who should be nominated and the type that can best combat the man in the White House and prevent the catastrophe that would follow his reelection."

Says Dictatorship, Democracy Confused

By The Associated Press

PORTLAND, Ore., Feb. 13—Confusion of dictatorship with democracy was Herbert Hoover's indictment today against the new deal administration of his successor in the White House.

The former President became a vigorous campaigner after the administration of his successor told Lincoln day banqueters a fountain of fun has sprung from the current confusion in government.

Before the applause of 1,000 listeners died out he announced he would travel to Colorado March 7 to speak to that states young Republicans at Colorado Springs.

Mr. Hoover styled last night's address a speech on the confused state of the union and under the title attacked President Roosevelt's recent message to congress.

The President stated a month ago that the issue before us is the right of the average man and woman to lead a finer better and happier life," he declared.

That is an objective to which we all agree. That is the idea of Americans since it was first mentioned in the declaration of independence. That is not the issue.

The issue is the new deal methods and objectives which are destroying this very thing.

Again referring to the message to congress Mr. Hoover quoted President Roosevelt as saying the only thing we have to fear is fear.

C., D. & M. MOVES TO DISSOLVE INJUNCTION

The temporary restraining order was granted by Judge Gast in the absence of Common Pleas Judge Hector S. Young who was out of the city at that time.

A notice filed in common pleas court with the motion formally notifies the law firm of Mouser & Wiant counsel for Ackley that the company's attorneys are ready to argue the motion at the earliest convenient time. It is expected the motion will be heard within a few days. The company is represented by the law firm of Guthery, Streitz & Guthery.

In the company's motion it is asked that the injunction order be dissolved because "first that the plaintiff has no legal right to said temporary injunction and second that no facts exist upon which the temporary injunction herein granted could have been legally issued and no facts now exist upon which said temporary injunction may be validly continued in force."

The company took no action with regard to two other injunction suits filed by farmers the same day. Ackley obtained his restraining order. The three suits were filed in a movement on the part of a group of farmers headed by the Farm Bureau to stop what they charged was a program of rural line construction begun by the electric company to get lines built before the Farm Bureau's rural electrification program could be put under way.

Ackley and Orley P. Shoots, farm owner on the Walters road, obtained injunctions on Jan. 20 halting the company from proceeding across their properties. Mrs. Lottie Merkle Caskey resident of the Buckeye road, was the third person in the group that sought injunctions. She wanted the court to order the removal of lines already built across the front of her property and for an order preventing the company from passing electricity over the wires. Judge Young refused a temporary injunction, saying the case would be disposed of after a hearing had been held.

Statements made by electric company and Farm Bureau officials at the time the three suits were filed disclosed the electric company is carrying on an extensive program of extending rural lines. Company officials said this is being done at the request of farmers who desire service. They denied charges of Farm Bureau officials that the construction program was hurried to extend the company's lines before work could be started on a rural electrification program for a large area of the county that has been prepared by the Farm Bureau and approved by the rural electrification administration in Washington with regard to its practicability.

MARION BLANKETED BY HEAVY SNOWFALL

of their routes were difficult, but no roads were impassable.

The heavy snowfall last night and this morning was the heaviest in several years for Marion. D. H. Raffensperger government weather observer here said. His records show the unusually heavy fall last Christmas day was five inches an inch less than the amount that fell in a period of approximately eight hours last night and this morning. January's heaviest was a three-inch snowfall.

As snow replaced zero temperatures as the chief weather worry of Marion residents fruit growers said the bitter weather has made inroads on the prospects for peach and cherry crops in this county. One orchardist said fruit growers are of the opinion the peach and cherry crop will be reduced almost to nothing this year. The long siege of cold. Apple buds believed are not serious hurt.

Northern Hemisphere Wracked by Elements

By The Associated Press

Continents of the northern hemisphere were wracked by the elements today as bitter cold drifting snow fire and winds of gale or tornado proportions brought death destruction and privation.

North America counted 26 buried to death in fires at Lakewood, N. J., Jackson, Minn. and New York.

In southern California tornado twisted through four cities injuring six persons while floods and fires added to property damage estimated at $100,000.

Iowa highways already blocked by snow and with more forecast were unfavorable for coal deliveries and the fuel shortage was so serious Gov. Clyde L. Herring advised mayors of Iowa cities to confiscate coal if necessary to conserve supplies.

Nine workers and a government engineer marooned aboard a work boat locked by ice floes in the Ohio river 35 miles north of Paducah, Ky. faced possible death from an ice gorge upriver which stored up a tremendous head of water.

Snow ranging up to three feet in depth threatened death by starvation to Montana cattle herds. Snow or rain fell or were forecast in most states west of the Mississippi river in the middle west and along the Atlantic coast.

Europe was lashed by blizzards and gales. Scores of fishermen were killed and others lost along the Italian coast of the Adriatic. Nine persons were known dead and many were missing in Asia minor. Floods swept Smyrna plains villages.

In the wake of a 24 hour blizzard at least 20 dead in Bulgaria many cities in Hungary and Greece. Macedonia had 25 known dead.

As far south as Alexandria, Egypt where a flying boat station was destroyed high seas worked havoc.

In Great Britain the toll of the last three days stood at 27. Paris faced a food shortage as roads became glazed with ice and only 20 per cent of normal supplies reached markets.

Snow and Rain Follow Cold Spell

By The Associated Press

Snow and rain came to Ohio today while rising temperatures brought a second day's respite from frigid blasts of recent weeks.

A general blanket of snow ranging in depth from two to six inches covered northern and central Ohio. Light snow turned to rain in the south portion.

Moderating temperatures permitted highway crews to clear main arteries rapidly. In northern Ohio cities however automobiles packed the snow hard and made driving treacherous.

A weather bureau prediction of colder weather for tonight appar ently allayed fears that a sudden thaw would cause a flood danger.

Meteorologist J. W. H. Alexander said a Columbus he temperature could drop between 10 and 20 and he forecast additional snow.

Hundred of extra men go employment clearing city streets of snow which fell to a depth of six inches in Euclid, Marion, Alliance and Newark.

Four inches fell in Columbus, Zanesville, Wapakoneta Court House and three in Dayton. Rain followed snow in these cities. Cam on reported four inches with snow still falling.

Near Fremont a northwest wind whipped a three-inch snow into drifts but highway crews kept roads open. Buses were held ready to take children from schools should the drifts threaten to block roads.

There was three inches of snow at East Liverpool and Sandusky and a 2.2 inch fall retarded traffic in Cleveland. Two inches also fell at Akron and Warren.

At Cincinnati a one inch fall turned to slush then froze. Autoists traveled slowly to avoid accidents.

The Ohio river remained choked with ice at Steubenville. In the absence of ferry service persons walked across the ice, which was covered by a two-inch snow fall.

In the vicinity of Portsmouth, the river was rising from a stage of 13.5 feet. It was raining there but no fears of a flood was expressed. At Ironton the stage 18 feet and it was raining.

DRESSMAKERS END LABOR ARGUMENT

By The Associated Press

NEW YORK, Feb. 13 — The threat of a strike in New York's vast dressmaking industry was dispelled today, but new labor clouds gathered in the garment center in the fresh possibility of a strike of building service workers.

The impasse on the building workers front arose suddenly when a conference between union officials and employers representatives broke up over the failure to sign a contract which union leaders said was agreed to orally in Mayor LaGuardia's office last week.

WHEAT LIST ERRATIC IN FINAL DEALINGS

Spreading Operations and Failure of Foreign Market To Follow Through Cited.

By The Associated Press

CHICAGO, Feb. 13—Spreading operations in which may delivery was bought and the new crop futures, July and September were sold, led toirregularities in wheat values late today.

Bullish speculators became somewhat discouraged because of failure of Liverpool and Winnipeg markets to follow up advances that took place yesterday when United States exchanges were closed. Winnipeg indicated export demand today was relatively slow.

Wheat closed unsettled, ¾ cent lower to ¾ higher than Tuesday's finish, May 98-98⅛, oats, ¼-⅜ advanced, and provisions unchanged to a rise of 2 cents.
